INSTITUTE OF MODERN LANGUAGES

NORWEGIAN LEVEL 2

COURSE OUTLINE

Prior Knowledge and Skills
This course is for learners who have language survival skills and can ask simple questions or make brief statements. The course focuses on developing the fundamentals of the language.

Proficiency Level
The content of this course corresponds approximately to levels A1 to A2 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages.

Course Aim
At the end of the course, learners should be able to converse on basic topics using correct pronunciation, write simple sentences, and read sentences related to familiar and routine matters. The course also aims to further develop learner’s appreciation of cultural diversity.

Course Details

- IML strongly recommends the use of dictionaries, which exist in a variety of printed, online and electronic formats. Tutors may recommend a dictionary at the commencement of the course.
- Each topic includes relevant social and cultural information.
- Additional tasks and resources will be provided in class.
- The IML library located on level 1 in the Joyce Ackroyd Building also has books, magazines, kits, CDs, DVDs and videos for loan to IML students.

Revision
Language is learned best with maximum contact and usage. Home exercises will be designed for revision and consolidation of each course segment. Revision is most effective when undertaken regularly in short sessions.

Assessment
Assessment is optional at the end of the full year course or equivalent. Listening and Speaking skills are assessed throughout the course. An examination to assess Reading and Writing competencies is held at the end of the course and a statement of attainment is then issued. A certificate of attendance is available upon request for students not undertaking assessment who have attended at least 75% of the course.

Further Study Options
A course in a higher level of this language is not currently offered. Learners wishing to pursue further studies can send an expression of interest to iml@uq.edu.au.
